G.S.R. 925.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 47 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the general rules for all open lines of railways in India administered by the Government, published with the notification of the Government of India, in the late Railway Department (Railway Board) No. 1078-T dated the 9th March, 1929, namely:—

In part-I of the said rules, after rule 441, the following rules shall be inserted, namely :—

"442. Protection of a train stopped in an Absolute Permissive Block Signalling Section.—When a train is stopped in an Absolute Permissive Block Signalling Section on account of any accident, failure, obstruction or other exceptional cause, and the train cannot proceed, the Guard shall immediately check up that the tail board or tall light is correctly exhibited and also exhibit a "Danger" hand signal towards the rear. Similarly, the Driver shall also show a danger signal towards the front. If the detention exceeds or is likely to exceed five minutes, the train shall be protected in accordance with rule 166 except that the detonators shall be placed as under:—

- (i) one detonator at a distance of 90 metres from the train in both the directions.
- (ii) three detonators, 10 metres apart, not less than 180 metres from the train or at such distances as has been fixed by special instructions, in both the directions.

For the protection of the adjacent line or lines, the provisions of clauses (b) and (h) of sub-rule (1) of rule 166 shall apply.

443. Caution Order.—(1) Whenever in consequence of the line being under repair or for any other reason, special precautions are necessary, a Caution Order detailing the Kilometrage between which such precautions are necessary, the reasons for taking such precautions, and the speed at which a train shall travel, shall be handed over to the Driver at the stopping station immediately short of the place where such precautions are needed, or at such stations as may be specified by the authorised officer.

(2) The provision of sub-rule (1) shall not apply in the case of long continued repairs when fixed signals are provided at an adequate distance short of such place and have been notified by the Operating or Traffic Department to the running staff concerned.

(3) The Caution Order referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be drawn up on green paper, both faces being green and shall be made out and signed in full provided that, as a temporary measure, the Caution Order may be drawn up on white paper with a green band running diagonally across the form."
